From Tuesday November 25, to Saturday November 29, 1746.

Vienna, November 23.

THIS Court has Letters from General Brown at Nice, who, upon his Arrival there, found the King of Sardinia ready to join two more Battalions, and the whole Infantry in a Condition to pass the Var. That General has been received with great Distinction by his Sardinian Majesty.

Berlin, Nov. 26. His Prussian Majesty came to Town on Wednesday last about Noon. On Thursday General Bernes had a private Audience of the King in his Closet, to which he was introduced without any Ceremony: After which his Majesty appeared in Publick, and then the Minister of the Duke of Wurtemberg, Baron Keller, had his Audience of Leave. The same Day, in the Afternoon, the King returned to Potzdam, and was followed by the Minister of State Baron Borcke; but M. Mardefelt, who arrived with his Majesty from Potzdam, continues here; and it is thought that his Majesty will come back hither on Tuesday or Wednesday next.

Copenhagen, Nov. 26. The King and Queen of Denmark returned hither on the 22d, and were followed by the Queen Dowager, and the Princess Louisa, on the 24th. The Royal Family is all lodged at the New Palace of Christiansbourg. M. Pushkin, Envoy Extraordinary from the Russian Empress, had Yesterday his first Audiences of the King and Queen of Denmark in the usual Manner.

Augsburgh, Nov. 28, N. S. According to our last Advices from Nice, which may be depended upon, General Brown, since his Arrival there from Genoa, had visited and reconnoitred several Posts upon the Var, which he had found well guarded and lined by the Enemy's Picquets, supported by a Brigade of Infantry and some Cavalry encamped behind them, about Half a League from that River; but that notwithstanding this Disposition, it was probable the Austrian General would attempt to pass that River in a few Days. The same Letters add, that the Bulk of the French Army lay at Antibes, but that the Spanish and Walloon Guards were marched with Don Philip to Arles; that eight other Spanish Battalions, and eight hundred Dragoons had been embarked five or six Days before for Naples; and that forty-eight Squadrons of the same Nation were marched into Savoy.

Munich, Nov. 28, N. S. The Elector of Cologne, who is expected here, was to be at Mergenthal on the 10th of December, where he is to keep Christmas, and to be here about the Middle of January.

Rotterdam, Dec. 2, N. S. Her Royal Highness the Princess of Hesse landed here this Morning from England, and sets out To-morrow by Break of Day for Utrecht.

Amsterdam, Dec. 2, N. S. We hear from Brussels, that the French Troops which are at Hall, Tubize, Braine le Comte, and Soignies, have received Orders to hold themselves in Readiness to march at a Moment's Warning: That the Cavalry had also been ordered to supply themselves with Hay sufficient for four Days, and several Pontons with great Quantities of warlike Stores were sent towards Louvain; from which they concluded that the French were forming some Design against Maestricht.

Hague, Dec. 2, N. S. The States of Holland met last Wednesday, but have hitherto been taken up in disposing of vacant civil and military Employments. The Letters from the Netherlands bring no other News but that the French continue to assemble a Train at Namur, where they have already 50 Pieces of heavy Artillery. It is supposed in those Parts, that they have an Eye on Luxembourg, in the Neighbourhood of which Place they are said to be assembling provisionally 40 Battalions. Advices from Provence, by the Way of Paris, say, that the Austrian and Piedmontese Army had not yet passed the Var on the 18th past, N. S. On the other hand, hand, it is written from Munich, that they had Accounts there, of undoubted Authority, that five Battalions, ſuppoſed to be the Head of the Army, had paſſed that River on the 16th. And there are other Letters from Swiſſerland to the ſame Effect.

Hague, Dec. 6, N. S. The States General have, in order to ſtrengthen the Number of Officers in the reſpective Regiments of their Infantry, taken a Reſolution to add a ſecond Lieutenant to each Company, with Enſign's Pay; and to make good this additional Expence, by reducing four private Men per Company. Marſhal Bathiani is daily expected here from Aix la Chapelle; and the Generals Cronſtrom, Smiſſaert, and Burmania, are arrived here from Brabant. The Marquis del Puerto, the new Spaniſh Ambaſſador at this Reſidence, is expected in a few Days, having already paſt Hambourg.
